Family Class – Kyte

Cooking Comments

Harmony: not enough salt, too delicate, a bit dry

Amphitrite: missing generosity such as more tomato sauce, bacon slightly undercooked and therefore too greasy

Azimut 77: Good, rough execution, garlic chopped too big

Galene: delicious & well balanced

Fairmile: Everything works but too much pasta and not enough sauce

Phantom: the alcohol used for deglasing is not fully evaporated and therefore comes back, too much onion; it's a good sauce but not homogeneous and has no harmony

Kyte: missing a bit of salt

Saphira: no comments

PT2: original, well balanced, too dry

Krampus: it's not an Italian way but a great mix of culture, excellent flavour

MoHan: Experiment, courageous, could be better without parmesan

Burrakah: mix of flavours doesn't match well, spicy & dry herbs with peppers need some sweetness
